

Truck-driver has been hit whilst changing a tyre

2005-07-28 13:15:06

Wiener Neudorf (Austria): In the morning of July 28th, 2005, a serious road accident happened on the southern motorway near Wiener Neudorf.

Near SCS in the direction to Vienna a truck-driver changed the rear tyre of his semi trailer on the emergency line of the motorway. Then a German small truck crashed with its right side into the standing truck and hurled the driver who was working on the semi trailer has been hurt beneath the body of the truck.

The Voluntary Fire Brigade of Wiener Neudorf was alerted at 9.23 h by the regional alert-centre of Mödling for the rescue of persons. When arriving the truck the fire brigade noticed that the injured truck-driver was not pinched.

First the fire brigade protect the scene of the accident. Then they supported the emergency-team of the Red Cross when rescuing the seriously injured person.

BFK Mödling
FF Wr. Neudorf

Quelle: Gottfried Bauer

Juli 2005